

EDITORIAL RULES

SISMEL · EDIZIONI DEL GALLUZZO

Following approval by the Editorial Board, texts must be submitted in final form according to the following guidelines. If an author/editor feels s/he must depart from said guidelines, contact the editorial board for authorisation before submission.

Texts which do not follow the guidelines will be returned to the author/editor for the necessary corrections.

Texts must be submitted in electronic format, in a version of Word and accompanied by a hard copy. The individual parts of a volume (foreword, introduction, chapters, bibliography, indices; for critical editions: text and appendices) must be submitted in individual files.

For Greek characters, authors should use one of the following fonts: SymbolGreek or Hellenica; for Hebrew characters, use SuperHebrew. If these fonts are not available, please contact the editorial staff and they will be provided.

In the case of extensive use of antiquated or obsolete characters (Old English, medieval diacritics, signs for long and short vowels), please contact the editorial staff.

Tables should be converted into text and separated by a single tab. Illustrations should be in .tiff format only, at 300 dpi resolution, in colour or black and white with a base width of no more than 15cm, and accompanied by an indication of page layout, dimension, and placement. Please contact the editorial staff in advance if a large number of images are planned.

TEXT AND NOTES

Lengthy quotations are to be placed outside the body of the text in Roman or normal font smaller than the main text, preceded and followed by one space, without quotation marks. Any editing within quotations should be indicated by three periods (...), while any insertions should be indicated by brackets, for ex. [my italics].

Quotations should follow the format: "... ' ...'...".

Punctuation (except exclamation points and question marks as part of a quotation) should always be placed outside quotation marks.

Notes should be placed at the bottom of the page (footnote), linked to the text by a superscripted number, and a period placed at the beginning of each note. Punctuation should be placed outside the note number in most of our series (ex. ¹²), with some exceptions, such as the series Archivio Romanzo (ex. ,¹²).

Pages numbered in Roman numerals should be in SMALL CAPS: ex. pp. X-XII.

In the series Archivio Romanzo Roman numerals should be in SMALL CAPS (except for centuries, kings, popes, and emperors), not in caps (ex. "Filologia mediolatina", XII (2010); Gregorio VII)

MISCELLANEA

In the case of miscellanea volumes, the editor is required to submit the various contributions in final draft in electronic format, as we do not accept corrections in pen on original manuscripts.

CRITICAL EDITIONS

All appendices (variants, sources, commentary) should be submitted in individual files, clearly indicating the corresponding text/appendix: for poetry, verse number; for prose, paragraph number or line number. In the case of the latter, the Author should contact the editorial board (+39 055-2374537) before delivering the files because the numbering of text lines changes according to the series.

Reference numbers in appendices should be in bold, on the line (not superscripted), followed by a period and a blank space.

Appendix notes should not be followed by a period. Between two notes on verses, lines, or distinct paragraphs, insert 5 blank spaces; between variants of the same verse, line, or paragraph, insert the % sign, preceded and followed by a blank space; separate with a semicolon (;) variants referred to the same entry.
